

Vision Statement

International Certifications Ltd has a vision of providing assessment and certification services that are delivered with impartiality, confidentiality and objectivity.

The aim is to make sensible interpretations of assessment standards, realistic judgments on audit compliance, and to identify those areas where the organizational efficiency of the client could be improved for the benefit of the company, its employees and its customers.

International Certification Ltd delivers certification that provides confidence.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'D Evans'.

David Evans
Managing Director
International Certifications Limited

Tuesday, March 01, 2011